DEMING.

Decision in an Important Land Case-Reckless Use of Firearms.

DEMING, N. M., Dec. 22d. The land case, as it is known here, came to trial last week in Silver City, and the possession of the land on which about one half of Deming is situated was decided in favor of the Santa Fe railroad company, plaintiff in the suit. It has been a long suit, and dates back to the first days of Deming's existence. day night. As soon or prior to the advent of the railroads the Santa Fe company laid claim to two quarter sections of govern- hatches ment land and fenced the same. On one section the fence remains intact, and have his headquarters in Yuma after the company holds possession by having two keepers on the same.
